SMART SOLUTIONS FOR GOOD LOCAL GOVERNMENT

- ▶ Authored plans to become the first county in Iowa lit by all LED lighting and helped taxpayers save over 10% in county energy costs.
- ▶ Creatively planned critical county-wide paramedics and law enforcement equipment without a tax increase by consolidating efficiencies.
- ▶ Increased cooperation with the Sheriff's Office for the preservation of courthouse security.
- ▶ Improved accessibility and transparency by bringing county government to every rural community under his chairmanship, live-streaming meetings and meeting with mental health advocates and providers for high-quality services.
- ▶ Jeremy has earned the support of those in the business community (past Siouxland Chamber endorsements) for working on a pro-growth agenda and those in the labor community (CWA 7177 Sheriff's Deputies & Correctional Officers: 2014 and 2018) for sound communication while supporting law enforcement and their families.

ABOUT JEREMY

Jeremy has lived a life dedicated to service from being student body president at West High to following in his parents' footsteps as a teacher. Now an energy specialist, Jeremy dedicates himself to maximizing operational efficiencies to stretch the taxpayer dollar for the Sioux City Schools. In the Army National Guard, Jeremy enlisted in a time of two wars and finished first in intelligence school. Jeremy is currently serving as a Chaplain (Major) in the Iowa Army National Guard.

Jeremy holds a B.A. in English (Dowling College, NY) and two advanced degrees, an M.A. in English from USD and an M.Div. from Liberty University, Virginia. An avid supporter of the arts, Jeremy has published literature and performed in local theater.

Jeremy met his wife Kim while he was teaching at a university in Vietnam, and they count as blessings four girls and two boys. They own the Green Tea Salon and as small business owners know what it takes to create jobs for our area.
